WHITE COLLAR DEFENSE ATTORNEYS TO PARTICIPATE IN 2019 WHITE COLLAR CRIME SEMINAR

Posted on April 3, 2019 by Sanford J. Boxerman

Category: Presentations
Tags: Michelle Schwerin, Sandy Boxerman, Sara Neill

On April 10, 2019, Sanford J. Boxerman and Michelle F. Schwerin will present at the 2019 White Collar Crime Seminar. The event is co-hosted by the Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis and the St. Louis Chapter of the Federal Bar Association.

Sanford J. Boxerman will be a panelist for a session titled, "Sentencing from All Angles," and Michelle F. Schwerin is speaking on, "It Doesn't End with Upjohn: Preserving Privilege and Other Ethical Considerations in Internal Investigations."

Sara Neill, Sandy Boxerman, and Michelle Schwerin were members of the planning committee for the conference.

The choice of a lawyer is an important decision and should not be based solely upon advertisements.

For additional information about the White Collar Crime Seminar, please visit the event page.

The choice of a lawyer is an important decision and should not be based solely upon advertisements.