On Tuesday, June 14, 2016, Sandy Boxerman participated in a panel entitled: "Blockchain Banking Regulation and Best Practices to Ensure Compliance" at the 2016 Distributed Trade Conference.

The Distributed: Trade conference

The Distributed: Trade conference was a first-of-its-kind forum bringing the industry's leading blockchain technology companies together with major enterprises to brainstorm how the new technology will disrupt and optimize trade networks and financial services.

Blockchain Banking Regulation and Best Practices to Ensure Compliance

Current AML/KYC requirements and proposed legislative considerations for corporations and financial institutions can utilize blockchain technology, combined with best practices, to pass regulatory scrutiny.

Panelists Included:

- Judd Bagley, Chief Evangelist, tØ
- Sandy Boxerman, Shareholder, Capes Sokol
- Joseph Ciccolo, Founder and President, BitAML
- Dawn Newton, COO, Netki
