

BOXERMAN QUOTED IN TAX NOTES “OPERATION VARSITY BLUES” COLLEGE FRAUD ARTICLE

Posted on June 26, 2019 by Sanford J. Boxerman

Category: Press

Tag: Sandy Boxerman

Sanford J. Boxerman was recently quoted in a Tax Notes article entitled, “College Fraud Scheme Shows Limits of IRS Voluntary Disclosure.” The article addresses the scandal, now being sorted out in federal court in Boston, nicknamed “Operation Varsity Blues” in which parents are accused of having participated in various illegal schemes to help their children obtain admission into prestigious colleges and universities.

Read the full article from Nathan J. Richman here: College Fraud Scheme Shows Limits of IRS Voluntary Disclosure

Tax Notes

Tax Notes is a portfolio of publications offered by Tax Analysts, a nonprofit tax publisher. It provides comprehensive and impartial coverage of tax news, while its commentary contributes important voices to the discussion and understanding of tax policy. Tax Notes is an annual subscription to a weekly print or online magazine featuring expert commentary, analysis, and special reports on federal tax issues.

For additional information about Tax Notes, please click here.

The choice of a lawyer is an important decision and should not be based solely upon advertisements.

The choice of a lawyer is an important decision and should not be based solely upon advertisements.