

BOXERMAN & SCHWERIN TO PRESENT AT 2019 MIDWEST ACCOUNTING & FINANCE BLOCKCHAIN CONFERENCE

Posted on September 23, 2019 by Sanford J. Boxerman

Category: Presentations

Tags: Michelle Schwerin, Sandy Boxerman

On Thursday, September 26, 2019, Michelle F. Schwerin and Sanford J. Boxerman will present at the Midwest Accounting and Finance Blockchain Conference. This 8-hour event, presented by The Missouri Society of CPAs and cosponsored by the Wall Street Blockchain Alliance, will address the foundations of blockchain technology, innovative industry use cases, the power of combining AI and blockchain technologies, and the rich applications and use for accounting, controller, legal, and advisory services professionals. Michelle and Sandy will speak on, "Legal Considerations for Blockchain Implementation and Use."

Michelle and Sandy's presentation will address legal issues in various industries that are dabbling in blockchain technology, provide an update on the legal regulation of virtual currency, and address other legal developments in the blockchain and virtual currency areas.

For additional information about The Midwest Accounting and Finance Blockchain Conference, please visit the event registration site.

The choice of a lawyer is an important decision and should not be based solely upon advertisements.

Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants

The Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants (MOCPA) is the premier professional development organization dedicated to CPAs in Missouri, representing over 8,000 members in public practice, industry, government, and education.

The choice of a lawyer is an important decision and should not be based solely upon advertisements.