Brian J. Sabin concentrates his practice in the areas of business, real estate, and bankruptcy law; however, in order to gain a breadth of experience, he will provide assistance in a variety of practice areas during the initial phase of his career. He began working at the Firm in January 2009 while completing his final semester of law school.

Brian received a Bachelor's of Science in Industrial Management with an emphasis in Industrial Engineering from Purdue University in 2005. He received his law degree in 2009 from Saint Louis University School of Law where he was an Editor for the Saint Louis University Law Journal. While in law school, he was an Intern for Missouri Court of Appeals Judge Patricia L. Cohen.

Brian is licensed to practice law in Missouri, and he is admitted to practice before the United States District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Missouri.

The choice of a lawyer is an important decision and should not be based solely upon advertisements.
