Capes Sokol is pleased to announce that William B. Remis has been named chair of the firm's Real Estate practice group. Sarah J. Luem will continue to serve as chair of the firm's Business & Corporate Law practice group. Together, they will continue working closely to provide clients with the strategic, cross-disciplinary legal counsel that defines Capes Sokol's approach.

Since joining Capes Sokol in 2022, Remis has become a trusted advisor to developers, investors, lenders, businesses, and property owners across a wide range of commercial real estate matters. His experience spans acquisitions and dispositions, leasing, land use and zoning, construction and development, financing, tax incentives, and other complex real estate transactions. As practice group chair, he will continue serving clients while helping guide the strategic direction and continued growth of the firm's Real Estate practice group.

> "With over 30 years of real estate experience, Bill has earned the deep trust and respect of our clients and the attorneys with whom he works," said Douglas S. Dove, Managing Shareholder of Capes Sokol. "Clients want solutions and expect team members who can effectively solve problems and provide pragmatic advice. Bill personifies that mindset and will make an excellent chair of our Real Estate department, providing the necessary leadership, strategic direction, mentoring and exceptional client service that the firm and our clients have come to expect".

> "One of Capes Sokol's greatest strengths is the way our attorneys work together across practice areas to solve complex challenges for our clients. I look forward to continuing to partner with Sarah and our talented team to build on that collaboration while helping clients navigate every stage of their real estate and business needs."

Capes Sokol's Real Estate practice group advises developers, investors, lenders, businesses, property owners, and community associations on all aspects of commercial real estate. Working closely with the firm's Business & Corporate Law practice group and attorneys across other practice areas, the team provides practical, strategic counsel that supports clients through every stage of the real estate lifecycle.
