Capes Sokol announces the expansion of its Family Law Practice Group with the addition of Jennifer L. Walker and Kaitlyn J. Jamison.

Jennifer Walker, an associate, brings extensive knowledge and a strategic approach to the team. She earned her Juris Doctor from Saint Louis University School of Law in 2022, concentrating in Intellectual Property. Her legal background, including workers' compensation, complex litigation, and estate planning, equips her to address the varied needs of family law cases. Licensed in Missouri, Jennifer uses her strong legal research and writing skills to provide effective solutions for clients.

Kaitlyn Jamison, also an associate, strengthens the Family Law Practice Group with her skills in conducting and defending depositions, preparing clients for testimony, assessing cases for strategic value, and drafting essential pleadings. Her experience in managing complex cases and negotiating settlements highlights her commitment to achieving favorable outcomes for family law clients. Kaitlyn ensures clients receive tailored and effective legal counsel.

This expansion follows the May 2024 announcement of the Family Law Practice Group's formation,
