> "What makes Amy special is the remarkably calm and dignified way in which she goes about demonstrating her sense of duty, her talent and her dedication," said Sanford J. Boxerman, shareholder. "Amy has made herself an invaluable member of our Capes Sokol team by steady competence and rock-solid dependability… She is a very talented legal assistant. She takes care of me and the four or five other professionals with whom she works. She seems to have a sense when something extra will be required and… often assists other secretaries with projects and tasks that have looming deadlines."
