Capes Sokol Pro-Bono Program

Capes Sokol has a long tradition of providing free or discounted legal services to economically disadvantaged people and the institutions that serve them. We believe it is a lawyer's obligation and responsibility to engage in pro bono service. We encourage all of our lawyers, regardless of workload, to participate in our Pro Bono Program every year and to treat pro bono matters with the same diligence, compassion, and integrity as any other matter for which he or she is responsible.

For additional information about the firm's pro bono program, please contact Sanford J. Boxerman, chair of the firm's Pro Bono Committee.
