Capes Sokol was proud to be a supporting sponsor of KidSmart's “Back to School with Joe & Michelle Buck Celebrity Event.” The annual star-studded celebrity event raises the financial support necessary for KidSmart to equip over 90,000 St. Louis children with $1 million dollars in school supplies for back to school.

“All children should have the supplies they need for learning,” says Michelle F. Schwerin, Capes Sokol Shareholder. “Capes Sokol is honored to support KidSmart in its mission to equip local students with essential school supplies for back to school success.”

KidSmart opened the doors to Missouri's only Free Educational Supply Store in January 2002. Through exceptional community partnerships, KidSmart has grown to annually equip tens of thousands of kids in need with free school supplies, throughout each and every school year. Since its inception, KidSmart has been able to provide over $57 million dollars worth of free school supplies in the St. Louis area.
