On September 30, 2016, Sara G. Neill and Laura Krebs Al-Shathir will present in front of the country's leading tax attorneys and government officials at the American Bar Association 2016 Joint Fall CLE Meeting.

The annual meeting, presented by the American Bar Association Section of Taxation and the American Bar Association Trust and Estate Law Division of the American Bar Association Section of Real Property, Trust and Estate Law, aims to generate high-level discussions between private practitioners and government on the most important issues facing tax lawyers today.

Sara G. Neill will be a panelist for a program entitled: "Ethical Considerations in IRS Settlement Negotiations". This panel will consider the scope of American Bar Association Model Rule 4.1 and Section 10.51 of Circular 230 and their sometimes counter-intuitive application in tax cases.

Laura E. Krebs Al-Shathir will participate in a panel for the S Corporations Committee entitled: "Important Developments". This panel will discuss recent legislative, administrative and judicial developments relating to S Corporations and their shareholders, including the proposed regulations on the valuation of interests under section 2704.
