Capes Sokol is pleased to announce the addition of attorney Charles H. Nitsch as Counsel to the Firm's Business and Real Estate and Litigation Practice Groups. Charles brings extensive experience in regulatory compliance, commercial finance, and risk management for financial institutions, making him a valuable asset to the Firm and its clients.

With a strong background in banking and commercial finance law, Charles has advised Fortune 1000 financial companies, guiding them through complex legal landscapes and mitigating risks. His expertise spans the full lifecycle of financial transactions, from deal origination to closing and servicing, ensuring compliance with financial regulations and industry best practices.

"We are excited to welcome Charles to the Capes Sokol team," said Douglas Dove, Managing Shareholder of Capes Sokol. "His extensive experience in commercial lending deepens our bench of banking and finance attorneys, and his insight into both lender and borrower perspectives will be an invaluable resource for our clients. Charles' breadth of knowledge across diverse practice areas allows us to continue to strengthen our financial services and real estate teams, and we look forward to the many contributions he will make to our firm's continued growth and success."

At Capes Sokol, Charles will counsel clients on high-value loan structuring, contract negotiation, litigation management, and risk mitigation strategies. He also provides legal oversight to ensure the proper perfection of security interests and the resolution of complex title issues on mortgaged property. His extensive experience in real estate transactions, title disputes, and loan documentation allows him to develop tailored legal solutions that address the unique challenges of the financial sector.
