

LAURA KREBS AL-SHATHIR AND SANFORD J. BOXERMAN TO SHARE 'HOT TOPICS IN TAX ENFORCEMENT' AT THE MISSOURI BAR ANNUAL SPRING COMMITTEE MEETING

Posted on May 15, 2023 by Capes Sokol

Categories: Presentations, Firm News

Tags: Laura Krebs Al-Shathir, Litigation, Missouri, Sanford J Boxerman, Tax Controversy, Tax Enforcement, Tax Law, White Collar

Sanford Boxerman and Laura Krebs Al-Shathir will deliver a presentation titled "Hot Topics in Tax Enforcement" at the upcoming annual spring committee meetings of the Missouri Bar. Their session will take place on Thursday, May 18th.

Boxerman and Al-Shathir both possess extensive experience in the field of tax law and enforcement.

Boxerman specializes in white-collar criminal defense and tax controversy, with a proven track record in representing clients involved in high-profile cases concerning tax fraud and other financial crimes.

In addition to advising clients in corporate transactions and in M&A, Al-Shathir focuses her practice on tax controversy and litigation, representing clients across a broad spectrum of tax-related disputes, including audits, appeals and litigation.

The choice of a lawyer is an important decision and should not be based solely upon advertisements.

With their combined expertise, Boxerman and Al-Shathir are uniquely positioned to offer valuable insights and advice to tax professionals at all levels. Their presentation is a unique opportunity for individuals to stay informed about the latest developments in tax law and enforcement.

To register for The Missouri Bar's Annual Spring Committee Meetings, please visit <https://mobar.org/scm2023>.

The Spring Committee Meetings will be virtual via Zoom. Committee membership is encouraged but not required to register and attend. Registration is free.

The choice of a lawyer is an important decision and should not be based solely upon advertisements.