On September 2, 2020, Sarah J. Luem will participate as a panelist during the First Annual St. Louis Women in Real Estate Virtual Summit. The virtual event, produced by Midwest REnews, will feature two panels discussing issues of interest to women during various stages of their commercial real estate careers.

Sarah will participate in the session entitled, "Emerging Women in Real Estate Panel—Their Perspectives." The panel will address the following topics:

- If I knew then what I know now, what might I do differently in my career in commercial real estate?
- What were the challenges in entering a male-dominated industry?
- Did you have a mentor? How did that make a difference?
- Thinking back, was there a watershed moment when you knew this industry was right for you?
- What consistent behaviors have helped you get to this point?
