Over three days in December, Sara G. Neill, Michelle F. Schwerin, and Sanford J. Boxerman will attend the American Bar Association's 32nd Annual National Institute on Criminal Tax Fraud and the Fifth Annual National Institute on Tax Controversy. Practice group members, Sara Neill and Sanford Boxerman are members of the planning committee for the annual gathering being held in Las Vegas, Nevada.

On Thursday, December 10, 2015, Sara G. Neill will be moderating a panel entitled: "IRS Penalty Collections: How to Protect Your Client's Rights." This panel will work through a series of hypotheticals to demonstrate how to be effective in these cases.

Later that day, Michelle F. Schwerin will be speaking on a panel entitled: "When the Accountant is a Witness: Ethical and Other Considerations." This panel will bring together practitioners and accountants to explore the ethical and strategic issues that arise.

In addition, Sanford J. Boxerman will provide the introduction for a panel entitled: "When the Past
