earned her J.D. with Distinction from the University of Missouri-Kansas City and was admitted to the Missouri Bar in 1974. She has handled state and federal appellate matters, complex civil litigation, and employment law since joining Capes Sokol in 2004. Before that, she served as staff counsel for the ACLU in western Missouri and was of counsel to the Law Offices of Arthur A. Benson. Sheila also served as Director of the Staff Attorneys Office in the Eighth Circuit for over 15 years.

In addition to Greenbaum's recognition, NCJWSTL will honor other outstanding individuals for their exceptional service to the community. Michelle Brooks will receive the Leadership Award, Jennifer Deutsch will be recognized for her Volunteer Service, and Dianna Fine and Wendy Flusser will be presented with the Fritzi Lainoff Advocacy Award. Alison Fox will be honored with the Emerging Leader Award, and Sarah Beth Matt will receive the Community Impact Award.

The award ceremony will be held on Wednesday, April 19, 2023, at the Berges Theatre at COCA, beginning at 6 p.m. For more information about the NCJWSTL Awards, please visit their website at www.ncjwstl.org.
