

NEILL & BOXERMAN TO PRESENT ON CIVIL AND CRIMINAL FEDERAL TAX ENFORCEMENT

Posted on June 30, 2017 by Sanford J. Boxerman

Category: Presentations

Tags: Sandy Boxerman, Sara Neill

On June 28, 2017, Sara G. Neill and Sandy Boxerman presented a session entitled: "Hot Topics in Civil and Criminal Federal Tax Enforcement" at the Bar Association of Metropolitan St.Louis (BAMSL) 15-Hour Annual MCLE Update.

Neill and Boxerman discussed topics such as recent IRS and DOJ employment tax enforcement efforts, the Coinbase summons litigation, efforts to cause United States persons with offshore financial accounts to come into compliance, and the IRS's implementation of new procedures that may result in the revocation or denial of passports to persons who owe at least $50,000 in delinquent federal taxes.

Neill and Boxerman both have many years of experience representing individuals and businesses in highly sensitive tax examinations and investigations, as well as civil and criminal tax litigation.

The 15-Hour Annual MCLE Update, sponsored by the BAMSL CLE Committee, is an event hosted for local attorneys who need additional MCLE credit before the yearly deadline. The full-day update offers attorneys the convenient opportunity to obtain knowledge in a wide range of topics and current updates from experienced local speakers.

For more information about this event, please visit the 15-Hour Annual MCLE update page.

The choice of a lawyer is an important decision and should not be based solely upon advertisements.