On June 29, 2016, Sara G. Neill and Sanford J. Boxerman will present a session entitled: "Orange is Not the New Black: Defending the Alleged Tax Fraudster" at the Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis (BAMSL) 15-Hour Annual MCLE Update.

In addition to providing an overview of the criminal tax system, Neill and Boxerman will provide practice tips based on many years of experience defending individuals and businesses under investigation for and/or charged with tax-related crimes.

The 15-Hour Annual MCLE Update, sponsored by the BAMSL CLE Committee, is an event hosted for local attorneys who need additional MCLE credit before the yearly deadline. Not only is the full day convenient, it also offers attorneys the opportunity to cover a wide range of topics and current updates from knowledgeable local speakers.

For more information about this event, please visit the 15-Hour Annual MCLE update page.
