NEILL TO MODERATE TAX PREPARER FRAUD PANEL AT 2015 ABA TAX MEETING

Posted on September 15, 2015 by Sara G. Neill

Category: Presentations
Tag: Sara Neill

On Saturday, September 19, 2015, Sara G. Neill will be moderating a panel entitled: "Tax Preparer Fraud: Strategies for Defending the Tax Preparer or Promoter in Criminal and Civil Injunction Litigation" at the ABA Tax Section Meeting in Chicago, Illinois.

The panel is part of the Civil and Criminal Tax Penalties Committee's program and will provide attendees with an update on Department of Justice comprehensive enforcement efforts in tax preparer/promoter injunction cases and parallel proceedings. Panelists will discuss practical tips and strategies for defending tax preparer and promoter clients under IRS investigation or charged with tax and related crimes, as well as those who the Department of Justice seeks to forever enjoin from preparing returns and/or promoting certain tax positions.

The choice of a lawyer is an important decision and should not be based solely upon advertisements.