Sarah J. Luem joined Capes, Sokol, Goodman & Sarachan, P.C. as an associate in September 2011. Ms. Luem graduated with honors from Saint Louis University School of Law in May 2011, where she was Executive Editor of the Saint Louis University Law Journal. During the summer after her second year in law school and during the succeeding academic year, Ms. Luem worked as a law clerk for the firm.

Prior to attending law school, Ms. Luem gained valuable experience, first as a general agent for American Income Life Insurance Company (2003-04) and then as a Senior Consultant with BearingPoint (2004-08) providing training, communication strategy, design and development, project planning and workforce transition advice for Fortune 500 Companies. Ms. Luem received a Bachelor's degree in Management, Organization and Human Resources and Psychology from Washington University in St. Louis. She is licensed to practice law in Missouri and will provide assistance to a variety of the firm's practice areas, with a concentration in the areas of business and real estate transactions.

The choice of a lawyer is an important decision and should not be based solely upon advertisements.
