

SCHWERIN TO PRESENT AT 2018 MOCPA ANNUAL MEMBERS CONVENTION

Posted on June 7, 2018 by Michelle F. Schwerin

Category: Presentations

Tag: Michelle Schwerin

On Friday June 8th, Michelle F. Schwerin and two accounting professionals will present at the Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants (MOCPA) Annual Members Convention.

This annual event brings together CPAs from across the state of Missouri to network and participate in professional development opportunities. Michelle will present a session entitled, "Succession Planning: Attracting, Retaining, and Utilizing Young Professional Talent."

Succession Planning: Attracting, Retaining, and Utilizing Young Professional Talent

Program Description:

This presentation will discuss several issues firms and business groups face concerning succession planning and proposes solutions to address these issues. Topics will include technology, professional growth, communication, and business generation.

The choice of a lawyer is an important decision and should not be based solely upon advertisements.

Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants

The Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants (MOCPA) is the premier professional development organization dedicated to CPAs in Missouri, representing more than 8,000 members in public practice, industry, government, and education.

The choice of a lawyer is an important decision and should not be based solely upon advertisements.